

MURRAYSHALL

Corporate Events

Silhouetted against 365 acres of Perthshire countryside, you'll find Murrayshall Country Estate.

A luxury country house estate nestled between the towering trees. You'll feel invigorated from your stay with us. Stay, play and unwind.

Situated in the evergreen heart of Perthshire, Murrayshall was built in 1664. The former home of Lord Lynedoch is not only a stately house, but a landmark on the Scottish landscape.

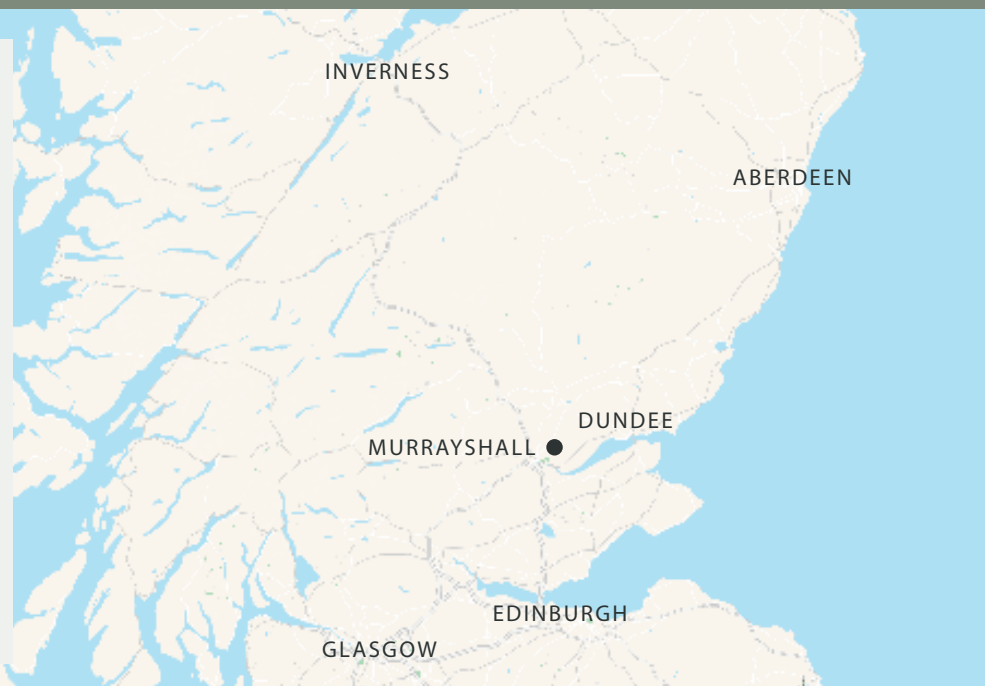

With 5 conference spaces and 40 keys, Murrayshall is a dynamic venue with an extensive offering to suit each individual guests' needs. From small informal meetings to group corporate away days, our team will create a bespoke event to ensure each requirement is catered for. After your meeting, enjoy 27-holes of parkland golf and an ever-flowing range of activities across the surrounding area. Plus, an array of award-winning food at our restaurants and bar.

Superior

With views over the gardens, golf courses and woodland A more spacious offering for your stay, our Superior rooms give you the ability to 'branch out'. Wake nestled in the heart of Perthshire and experience the sights and sounds of the countryside we are proud to call home.

Deluxe

Character and traditional charm; what more could you want for your getaway? Our Deluxe rooms are located in the original part of the house, so you can marvel at the original features and small details that make these rooms special. With high ceilings and beautiful views over the Perthshire countryside, there is no better place to rest your head.

Suites

The delightful charm of our suites is their spacious yet inviting feel. As you step through the door, enjoy separate living and sleeping areas, with a mixture of both classic and modern aesthetics to enhance your stay. Located both in the Main House and in Balvaird House, our suites offer a luxurious and relaxing atmosphere for all purposes.

Unique and eco-friendly sanctuary for those seeking a countryside retreat.

Designed and engineered by Scottish firm, Armadilla, the custom-built units will blend seclusion with luxury, with select pods offering the added indulgence of super-king-sized beds and a private jacuzzi.

The state-of-the-art pods are now available to book from May 2025. Increasing Murrayshall's accommodation capacity by 50%, these pods will cater to a diverse range of guests – offering one-bedroom options perfect for romantic getaways, as well as larger two-bedroom pods ideal for young families and friends looking for both relaxation and adventure in the heart of Scotland.

With industry-leading eco credentials and advanced smart integrated technology, the new pods offer a sustainable expansion to the estate's pristine natural surroundings.

Award winning cuisine to suit all tastes.

With Perthshire on our doorstep, we make the most of everything the land has to offer. From fresh vegetables to locally sourced meat, each ingredient has been carefully chosen to enhance your dining and tasting experience.

Our Head Chef Craig Jackson, heads up our Culinary Team. Craig is a Master Chef of Great Britain and also holds 2 rosettes for his Eòlas Restaurant.

Craig and his team offer a great extent of experience showcasing some truly fantastic dishes from Scotland, with the main focus being on seasonality and the use of local ingredients.

EÒLAS

Awarded 'Best Boutique Hotel Restaurant' in the UK, in October 2022 and short-listed for 'Scotland's Best Restaurant' with The Scotsman in summer of this year, our refined dining experience showcases the very best of Highland produce from our home.

Eòlas (pronounced Olass) has a simple mission; to offer the best modern Scottish cooking, specialising in quality, seasonal food and local producers. We want diners to enjoy the dishes, create great memories and appreciate the value of good cooking techniques. Located on the west side of Murrayshall, it makes the most of the Perthshire landscape with views for miles.
