BAROSSA VALLEY

Torbreck has a marvellously serendipitous link with Murrayshall: Torbreck's oldest surviving vineyard site—the Hillside Vineyard—was first established in 1849 by the Springbett family in a Barossa township named Lyndoch. Although an unfortunate early misspelling omitted the "E" from his name, the town is indeed named in honour of Thomas Graham, 1st Baron Lynedoch, the most famous member of the Graham-Murray family of Murrayshall and victor of the Battle of the Barrosa in the Napoleonic Wars. (Barrosa, too, was misspelled by Australian cartographers as the Barossa which it remains to this day.) A year after the establishment of what is now proudly Torbreck's Lyndoch vineyard on the other side of the world, a memorial was erected to him here on Murrayshall Hill in 1850.

	Bottle
Semillon 'The Woodcutters' Torbreck, Barossa, Australia, 2021	£60.00
Lively and vibrant with lime, lemon and toasted brioche notes

A fresh, mid palate with a vivacity and energy that this blend always generates. Ripe, juicy flavours of blackberry and cassis, spiced cherries, minerals and succulent blueberry fruit all balanced with fresh acidity and a fine gentle tannin structure.
Torbreck 'Woodcutters' Shiraz, Barossa, Australia, 2022	£68.00
The name 'Woodcutter's' stems from when Torbreck founder David Powell spent several years working in the Scottish Highlands as a lumberjack or woodcutter in the Torbreck forest. This wine is taken from forty-year-old vines is rich and concentrated, without ever being overbearing.
Grenache Shiraz Mataro 'The Steading' Torbreck, Barossa, Australia, 2019	£130.00
Delicate and complex with notes of truffle, fice spice and spring flowers, supported by a rich core of liquorice, saddle leather and Provençal herbs. Very European in style, the palate is elegant and pure with subtle notes of crushed cherries, earth and cedar all neatly wound by a taut spine of acidity and ripe supple tannins.
